Farmers' Bulletins

Commissioner Koiner, of the Department of Agriculture. busy now mailing out the Sep tember bulletin to the farmers of the State who have sent their names to be put on the Department's mailing list. Any person who has even a garden can get his name listed with the Commissioner. This bulletin is instructive and interesting to all farmers. The September issue contains articles on the destructive worm that attacks the bean crop, on swine production and feeding alfalfa, the convenience of water in the home and how to get it, the importance of the cover crop for winter, how to make good vinegar, pasture for hogs—the money saver, the helpfulness of land banks to the farmer, the apple crop and prices, the farmers' exchange and want informafertilizer and seed analyses. All farmers who do not get these bulletins each month

Deputy Collector J. N. Wood and State Prohibition Inspector J. J. Gliver, captured a copper still with a capacity of 234 gailons, a cap, worm, and five fermenters, near Slate River Mills, Buckingham county, several days ago. The officers caught P. E. Morse and Alfred Loving, both of whom were the federal court. According to Deputy Collector Wood, who was in Lynchburg yesterday, Loving pleaded guilty to operating the still and Morse plead ed guilty to owning it.
